

Service Project Coordinator

Gifts needed for this position:

A heart for service and justice issues
Interpersonal communication skills
Organizational skills

Description and Responsibilities of the position:

To provide opportunities for teens to live out the Gospel message through service to others.

Communicate with the youth minister for current needs for service opportunities and creation of new opportunities that work with the current youth ministry calendar

Contact local organizations and service projects to set up service opportunities

Communicate the progress and development of service opportunities to the youth minister and the youth ministry team

Provide information to be shared with teens about service opportunities

Time Commitment:

1—2 hours a month on your own schedule.