What to do When Jesus is Hungry*Co-Ed

Every Wednesday Evening from 6-7 pm starting 1-26-22 through 3-16-22 at the Holy Family Fireside Room

Leader: Kelsey Carter (920-921-0580 ext. 303 or kelseyc@hffdl.org)

Cost: $15 for the book that you can order through Amazon (author is Fr. Andrew Apostoli)

According to the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus will judge us on the basis of whether or not we fed him when he was hungry, gave him drink when he was thirsty, welcomed him when he was a stranger, clothed him when he was naked, and visited him when he was sick or in prison. What we have done for others, he will tell us, we have done for him.

The Catholic Church has traditionally called these six acts of kindness--along with a seventh, burying the dead -- the Corporal Works of Mercy. In this down-to-earth yet inspiring guide, Father Andrew Apostoli, C.F.R., explains the Corporal Works of Mercy and illustrates multiple ways we can do them in our modern everyday life.

Father Apostoli also outlines the lesser-known but equally important Spiritual Works of Mercy: counseling the doubtful, teaching the ignorant, admonishing the sinner, consoling the afflicted, forgiving offenses, bearing wrongs patiently, and praying for the living and the dead. And he offers many creative ways these too can be made part of our lives.

As a founding member of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal, Father Apostoli knows firsthand about the challenges and rewards of caring for those in physical or spiritual need. His order is dedicated to the works of mercy, and Father Apostoli brings to his subject a great wealth of spiritual and practical wisdom gained from personal experience.

The Great Divorce * Co-Ed

Monday evenings 6:30-7:30pm 2-7-22 through 3-28-22 (excluding 2-28-22 for the Parish Mission) at the Holy Family Fireside Room

Leader: Luke Townsend (ldtownsend27@marianuniversity.edu)

Cost: $9 for the book on Amazon (author C.S. Lewis)

C.S. Lewis' The Great Divorce is a classic Christian allegorical tale about a bus ride from hell to heaven. An extraordinary meditation upon good and evil, grace and judgment, Lewis's revolutionary idea in the The Great Divorce is that the gates of Hell are locked from the inside. Using his extraordinary descriptive powers, Lewis' The Great Divorce will change the way we think about good and evil.

Book of Ruth * Co-Ed

Thursday mornings 8:30 to 10 am April 28, May 5, 12, 19 at the Holy Family St. Agnes Library

Leader: Marian Freund (meafreund@gmail.com or 948-9744)

Cost: $13 for participant work book

Many books and movies that pass for "love stories" today seem like tales of lust, not love. However, the Book of Ruth is truly a sacred love story. This book relates how a simple Gentile woman rose from the sudden death of her husband to a courageous trust in God.

As Steve Ray and Fr. Scott Courtney will show you, Ruth is very special for another reason: she is one of the four women mentioned in Jesus' genealogy, as well as King David's great-grandmother.

In this prudent, four-part explication of its four beautiful chapters, you will learn:
How Boaz and Ruth found each other through kindness and selflessness
Why prudence and patience always bring us closer to God
That trusting in God through confusion and pain is a guarantor of happiness

The Book of Ruth is yet another example of how God is always faithful to his promises, without exception. Ruth trusted in God even when her world fell to pieces – and he turned every inch of that pain into the purest light for his faithful daughter. Let him do the same for you.

Conversion * Co-ed

Thursday Mornings 8:30 – 10 am February 24, March 3, 10, 17, 24, April 7, 21 at the Holy Family St. Agnes Library

Leader: Marian Freund (meafreund@gmail.com or 948-9744)

Cost: Participant workbook is $15

In this DVD series, Bishop Robert Barron illuminates six biblical stories of conversion, demonstrating how six ordinary people, just like you, were met by Jesus where they were and called to a better life through Him. The common theme in each story is the turning of all one's attention and energy toward an ever deeper, personal relationship with Jesus Christ. In his characteristically energetic style, Bishop Barron explains how conversion is not so much a one-time event, but a life-long process. He explains, "Jesus Christ calls us in thousands of different ways to follow Him, as we strive on the path for spiritual excellence."

The Search * Co-Ed

Thursday mornings 8:30-10 am January 6, 13, 20, 27, February 3, 17 at the Holy Family St. Agnes Library

Leader: Marian Freund (meafreund@gmail.com or 948-9744)

Cost: Participant workbook is $16

The Search is a video series for those looking for meaning in life and for the answers to life's deepest questions. This DVD set includes seven episodes that will help viewers reignite their love for the journey of life and open their hearts to the transcendent.

"About The Search"

Why are we here? What is life all about? What happens when we die? These are some of life's deepest questions, rooted in the human heart's deepest desire: happiness, love, beauty, meaning. Where can we find the answers to these questions and these desires? Until satisfied, we are left questioning, longing, and searching.

The Search video series guides viewers through the arc of seven episodes, examining the great big story of everything – life and death, sorrow and happiness, science and faith – as astrophysicists, psychologists, astronauts, neuroscientists, professors, athletes, artists, and the beauty of the cosmos all point to one big (and perhaps surprising) conclusion: that Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church have the best and most satisfying answers to every one of the questions and desires of the human heart.

Embark on the adventure, discover the purpose and begin The Search.
