January minutes approved as written

New Business

Sarah Razner provided Communication report out

Handouts provided

A new version of the Good News was provided for review.

This is being used to reduce the amount of paper copies printed and overall expense to the parish

This generated discussion on the break from our previous supplier of bulletins and over all sponsorship involvement in bulletin printing costs

Erik brought up a need to offer streaming services for Quinceanera.

Sarah and Fr. Ryan agreed and took a note down to look at feasibility.

Rectory update – Fr. Ryan

Construction is going well

Some delays in material due to supply chain issues.

Boiler system needs upgrading given additional suites added to the house and its overall age of 21 years

Planning April 15th completion

Move in day set for May 5th and 6th

Dedication and Open house set for June 18th at noon.

Council Calendar changes

Fr. Ryan brought up the need to change council meeting time as the upcoming schedule was reviewed.

Council approved a time change to a 7:00-8:15PM for upcoming year

Fr. Ryan will check the dates of 12/7 and 11/2 as meeting times on the calendar as they are the Feast of the Immaculate Conception and All Souls Day.

Facilities Report

Council members were provided with a copy of the completed Facilities report for review.

We went over Holy Family and Sacred Heart Sites.

No surprises were found.

Next meeting will include reviewing St. Mary and St. Peter

Lead Liaison Reports

Julie reported for Christian Formation

There is concern over the number of children attendees declining

A discussion on how each parish site conducts mass more consistently was brought up.

Erik had no updates from the Worship Committee

Mike reported out for Strategic Planning

80 responses to the Parish survey were completed

Results are promising.
