HF(Spanish) 12:00 pm: Bless Fr. Fabian on his reassignment

"Whoever loves me will keep my words, and my father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him"
 — Jn 14:23

Jesus' words during the Last Supper are mysterious, but glorious. In this passage, he reveals one of the great secrets of Christian life.

When we are baptized, God himself—the Blessed Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit—actually came into our souls and took up residence there. Have you ever wondered why Jesus ascended back into heaven forty days after his resurrection? Because he wanted to be closer to us; he wanted to be able to dwell deep within our hearts, beyond earthly limits. If Christ had not "gone to the Father," he would have remained limited by time and space, as he was during his earthly life. But since he now dwells body and soul in heaven, he can be present to each one of us at all times, through the Holy Spirit.

Since the three Persons of the Trinity share the same nature, where one is, all three are. But for the sake of our understanding, the Church has long attributed God's presence within our soul especially to the Holy Spirit, whom we are preparing to welcome in the coming Solemnity of Pentecost.

Tradition calls the Holy Spirit the "sweet guest of the soul." The anointing with chrism at baptism reminds us that at that moment the Holy Spirit brought God to dwell within us, to be our intimate friend. The Holy Spirit is like our own personal trainer, He strengthens our capacity to love like Christ.

"The Holy Spirit," Jesus reminds us, "...will teach you everything." Listen to the Holy Spirit in your prayer this week. You will not hear the Holy Spirit if you are not listening, and prayer is the quality quiet time where you can. If you listen to anyone, listen to the Spirit. It requires all the inner quiet that you can muster.

- Fr. Alejandro
