Fourth of July Mass, Office Hours

Holy Family Catholic Community will celebrate our nation's Independence Day with Fourth of July Mass at 8:00 am in the Prayer Garden at Holy Family Church on Monday, July 4. Those who attend should bring their own chair. Please note that the Parish Office will be closed in observance of the holiday on Friday, July 1 and Monday, July 4 and reopen on Tuesday, July 5.

Holy Family needs of Ushers, Greeters

Holy Family is seeking volunteers to act as Ushers and Greeters. Greeting is a great way to get the whole family involved at Mass! Greeters are needed at all of our church sites, so if you are interested in volunteering, please contact Terry at the Parish Office at (920) 921-0580 ext. 101 and tell her which site you would like to greet at. Ushers play an important role at the Mass and are needed to serve at 10:00 am on Sundays at Holy Family. If you would like to usher at that Mass, please speak with one of its ushers to volunteer.

GriefShare to begin next month

Beginning July 11, Holy Family Catholic Community will host "GriefShare," a weekly support group and seminar designed to help people rebuild their lives after loss. As each of the 13 sessions are self-contained, participants can attend GriefShare at any point and do not have to attend in sequence. The group will meet Mondays from 4:00 to 5:30 pm July 11-October 10 at Holy Family Church. The group won't meet on Labor Day. To sign up, call (920) 921-0580 ext. 303 or email gabbyy@hffdl.org.

First Saturday Devotion

Join us at the 8:00 am Mass at Presentation on the First Saturday of the month for the Five First Saturdays Devotion. The Five First Saturdays Devotion is one of the principal points on the urgent need for mankind to offer reparation and expiate for the many injuries that the Immaculate Heart of Mary suffers from the hands of both the impious and the indifferent man. The devotion consists of: Going to confession, receiving the Sacrament of Holy Communion, saying five decades of the Rosary, and meditating for 15 minutes on the mysteries of the Rosary.

Cor Jesu set for July 7

Join us for a beautiful night of worship at Cor Jesu. Taking place the first Thursday of every month at Presentation, Cor Jesu invites you to enter into the heart of Jesus through Adoration and Confession at 6:30 pm and Mass with music at 7:30 pm. You can also join us every Thursday at Presentation for Adoration and Mass.

St. Peter Patronal Feast Day June 29

Celebrate the Patronal Feast day of St. Peter Church on Wednesday, June 29 on the Solemnity of Saint Peter and Saint Paul, the Apostles. Our celebration will begin at 8:00 am with Mass. A coffee and doughnut social will follow.

At the social, we will celebrate our current participants as they share their experiences with anyone interested in joining. Attendees will have the opportunity to sign up.

Now is the time to sign up for Vacation Bible School!

Children will experience a week full of music, activities, and Bible stories as they learn more about God's love for us at our Vacation Bible School program. Vacation Bible School is for children in grades pre-K through sixth and runs from August 1-5 at Sacred Heart School. Those who sign up for our Vacation Bible School program before July 7 will receive a t-shirt with their registration. To register, visit hffdl.org/cf.

We need you to pick our new video series!

Help us pick the topic of our latest video series! A letter from your Holy Family Priest | "Each Sunday, we have the chance to encounter Jesus"

Sunday is the first day of the week! In a speech to the clergy of Rome in 2013, Pope Benedict XVI reminded us that each Sunday is an opportunity for a fresh start:

"Again and again we begin our time with the Resurrection, our encounter with the Risen one, and from that encounter with the Risen one we go out into the world. In this sense, it is a pity that these days Sunday has been transformed into the weekend, although it is actually the first day, it is the beginning; we must remind ourselves of this: it is the beginning, the beginning of Creation and the beginning of re-Creation in the Church, it is an encounter with the Creator and with the Risen Christ."

Each Sunday we have the chance to encounter Jesus, the Risen one. And this, if we let it, can be the beginning of new life for us. Each Sunday is thus a new beginning – the first day of the week.

Over the last couple of months, we have celebrated the Easter Season, giving thanks for Jesus' resurrection. We have recalled Pentecost, celebrated the Holy Trinity, and honored the gift of Christ's Body and Blood in the Eucharist. All these are great feasts; they are like the "Sunday" of the whole year. But now we begin the work of bringing the meaning of these feasts into our ordinary lives. And so we begin Ordinary Time – a time for living out Christ's death and resurrection in our ordinary lives.

This means that every suffering we undergo is something we can hold up before God alongside Christ's sufferings on the cross. Every joy that fills our life is a joy we in fact share with Christ the Risen one. When we have needs and are waiting for God, we are not waiting alone, but we wait with the disciples and Mary in the upper room, knowing that the Holy Spirit came upon them at Pentecost and that the same Holy Spirit will come upon us. Every day, we suffer with Jesus, we triumph with Jesus, and we ask for the Spirit of Jesus to come upon our world.

It's a different kind of living, but that is what Sunday begins. The story of Jesus – his suffering, death, and resurrection – is meant to become the story of each Catholic. We have celebrated his victory in Easter and in the recent feast days, and we continue to celebrate it each Sunday. Now is time for us (as the Knights of Columbus say) to "live Jesus" in our daily lives. We've celebrated Sunday, but Sunday is just the first day of the week.

-Fr. Edward
