Dear Friends,

A blessed Lord's Day!

As we continue to make our Advent way, I am certainly grateful for the many beautiful hymns of our Church's great patrimony of sacred music that draw our gaze toward the coming of the Lord, once in the flesh, soon at His coming again, and today in our celebration of the Mass.

One such hymn, "Creator of the Stars of Night" (Conditor Alme Siderum), has been chanted by our Church during the season of Advent since the 7th century. Though concise in its verses, its words quickly capture the depth of these powerful weeks and invite again our decisive response to God.

For our prayerful reflection this Advent Sunday, several of this hymn's verses are printed below.

"Creator of the stars of night, Your people's everlasting light, O Christ Redeemer of us all, We pray you hear us when we call." / "When this old world drew on toward night, You came; but not in splendor bright, Not as a monarch, but the child, Of Mary, blameless mother mild." / "At your great Name, O Jesus, now, All knees must bend, all hearts must bow: All things on earth with one accord, Like those in heav'n, shall call you Lord."

In a particular way, three opportunities in our parish this week invite each one of us to do just that, to bend our knees and to bow our hearts, before the coming of the Lord.

On Tuesday, please avail yourselves of our Advent Day of Reconciliation. In addition to us priests, other confessors will be available from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm at Holy Family for this beautiful sacrament.

On Thursday, we celebrate the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a Holy Day of Obligation. Please worship the Lord with us at Mass as we entrust ourselves to our Blessed Mother!

On Friday, we host Arise, a night of Eucharistic Adoration, Confessions, praise and worship music, and dynamic speakers, beginning at 7:00 pm at Holy Family Church.

Very truly yours,

Fr. Michael J. Malucha
