Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension. Forty days after his resurrection, Jesus was taken up, body and soul, into heaven; on Ascension Day we commemorate and celebrate that event.

What does this celebration mean for us? Bishop Robert Barron explains it using two words: Political and Liturgical.

First, Political. Heaven is the place of eternity and power. It is the “place” from which God sustains all of reality and directs all of history – past, present, and future. The fact that Jesus is now “seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty” means that Jesus – Son of God but also a human being – is now present to all times and all places. As a military general might have gone up to a high mountain to survey the field of battle, so Jesus has “been taken up” and now surveys the whole field of history, directing the forces of heaven in the fight to liberate human persons from sin and its consequences.

Second, Liturgical. Heaven is the place of seeing God face to face. In heaven, Jesus – Son of God but also a human being – beholds the Father in all His glory. And now, because of the Ascension, Jesus is present before the Father, not just in his divinity as Son of God, but also in his humanity as Son of Man – a son of man whose risen body still retains the glorified wounds he suffered for love of us. In heaven, the Son now shows the Father his Body, wounded and glorified; on earth, the Son gives us a way to join him in showing his Body, wounded and glorified, to the Father. This is the Mass; the Son says from heaven, through the priest, “This is my body.” In heaven, on the altar, in the community of the Church. “This is my body.” From heaven, the ascended Lord Jesus leads us in the Mass.

I encourage you to watch this homily, where Bishop Barron explains these things better than I could: The Solemnity of the Ascension \(Sunday Homily from May 24, 2020\) - YouTube And today, celebrate! For today we give thanks for the victory of Jesus and we join with him as, in the Mass and throughout our lives, he draws us and those we love into that victory.

God bless you,

Fr. Edward
