Charis Pregnancy & Family Help Center Baby Bottle Campaign next weekend

Charis Pregnancy and Family Help Center's Baby Bottle Campaign will return to all Holy Family church sites and Masses the weekend of June 24/25, commemorating the first anniversary of the Supreme Court's decision in Dobbs v. Jackson's Women Health Organization. You're invited to participate in the Baby Bottle Campaign and support Charis in preserving the sanctity of life and making a positive impact on the lives of the people they serve—unborn babies, women, men, families, and those who are suffering from a loss. Volunteers are available after Mass to assist you in picking a Baby Bottle Bank or Charis self-addressed envelope. Fill the bank with a donation—coins, cash, checks (made payable to Charis Pregnancy and Family Help Center)—or donate online at partnersofcharis.org. Please return the Baby Bottle Banks to churches the following weekend, July 1/2, or to the Charis Office, 207 N Main St., Tuesday-Thursday, 10:00 am-4:00 pm. All donations will help Charis continue their life-saving work. Your support is greatly appreciated!

Pilgrim Sculpture: "Memorial for Unborn Children"

The sculpture "Memorial for the Unborn Children" will be at all Holy Family Masses the weekend of June 24 & 25. As this month we pray for and remember all children and families wounded by abortion, not only in the past, but also today, the newly formed Holy Family Respect Life Committee hopes this sculpture will serve as a reminder both of this painful reality and the possibility of reconciliation with God, as well as the need to pray for conversion, beginning with ourselves. You can also visit the sculpture in the Sacred Heart Adoration Chapel.

Dear Friends,

Praised be Jesus Christ!

On this Father's Day, Our Lord's words resonate deeply here within the Archdiocese of Milwaukee.

"Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest."

We give thanks and praise to God not only for a harvest that despite manifold challenges is yet teeming with life, but also for those who have been sent for us to be those laborers in the vineyard, our priests.

In a particular way, this Sunday, we bid farewell to Father Edward Sanchez and Father Justin Weber, who have labored so generously in the vineyard of the Lord, both in our parish and at St. Mary's Springs Academy, amidst our families and within our community.

To them, we offer our affection and the promise of our prayers, as well as a lasting home here at Holy Family. Most importantly, we thank them for the gift of the Sacraments, for bringing to us the Lord in His Most Holy Body and Blood, for absolving us in His name of our sins, for baptizing our children, for witnessing our sacramental marriages, and for anointing those whom we have lost and loved.

At a recent baptism celebration, a friend and father knelt down next to his young daughter to introduce her to me. What he said captured so simply and beautifully the life of a priest: "He's your dad too."

It's no small secret that throughout these last years, many priests have passed through our churches and our homes here at Holy Family. Apart from the Lord, this could be the most confusing of families, especially with mind to the words of my friend to his daughter! And yet with the Lord, together with our priests we are drawn more deeply into the new family of God, Christ's Body, the Church.

On behalf of us priests, both past and present, who share the privilege of being called "Father" and ministering to this parish and its many apostolates, churches, and families, thank you for allowing us to be your spiritual fathers. It's a gift to share in the priesthood of the Lord and to be sent as His priest.

Together we "storm Heaven" this week for Father Matthew Kirk and Father Kevin Tanel, who begin their new assignments here this Tuesday, as well as for the continued renewal of our Church, through both marriage and family life, as well as priesthood and religious life.

"Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give." May it be so for us here at Holy Family!

Very truly yours,

Fr. Michael J. Malucha
