A letter from your Holy Family Priest | Give it Over to God

The great mystery Jesus lives this week is that the greatest things in history do not come from seizing power or looking out for ourselves, but from handing everything over to Another, from handing our lives over to Another, by placing our lives in the Father's hands.

The Mystery we need to live, the mindset we need to embrace, is summed up in the words from our second reading. St. Paul tells us to "have the mind of the Messiah," to think and look at reality just as Jesus himself did. And what is that mindset? "Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave....Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him" (Philippians 2:6-7a, 8-9). That's it: "Jesus, though he was in God's form, did not regard his equality with God as something to be grasped."

All too often in our lives, we find ourselves doing the exact opposite. We think, "If I were in charge," or, "If I made the decisions around here." The first thing we think to do is exploit our power and influence. Our instinct is that if we are going to get people think the right way, the use of power and force is the best method (e.g., political, physical, psychological, etc.) But has that ever worked in the long run? It certainly didn't work for Julius Caesar. It most assuredly doesn't work for politicians of our time as well. It also doesn't work for us!

What did Jesus do instead? Jesus instead decided to "empty himself, and took the form of a slave." Jesus could have used divine power to accomplish his mission, he could have exploited his divine power. Jesus did not have to allow anything bad to happen. But instead, he took on the form of a slave, he became a weak human being.

In this week, we enter into the great mystery of obedience, and how the mystery of that obedience, and not doing whatever we want, leads to the greatest things in life, to exaltation, to eternal life. The answer to all of life's great mysteries is obedience, simple obedience.

He is asking us to obey, to listen to his example, and realize that the greatest things in history do not come from seizing power or taking care of ourselves, but from handing everything over to Another, from handing our lives over to Another, by placing our lives in the Lord's hands. In this way, we live free from the powers of the world, and instead are caught up in the Force that truly moves history and truly makes us happy. We are caught up in the Mystery of this Holy Week. Because at the end of the day, we either believe in our own power, or we believe in God.

-Very Rev. Ryan J Pruess

The Sacred Heart Adoration Chapel will close at 3:00 pm on Holy Thursday so that all can attend Mass/Adoration at Holy Family at 7:00 pm. Following Holy Thursday Mass, there will be adoration with reposition at Holy Family until 6:00 am on Good Friday at Holy Family Church.

Divine Mercy Sunday April 7

Join us at Holy Family Church on Sunday, April 7 to celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, a celebration of our Lord's mercy given to us through the Paschal Mystery of Jesus Christ. The afternoon will include silent adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 2:00 to 3:30 pm, Reconciliation from 2:00 to 4:00 pm, and the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3:30 pm. Mass will not be part of the celebration. To reduce long lines for Reconciliation, please try to go Reconciliation eight days before or after the feast day.

First Friday Mass April 5 at Sacred Heart

The first Friday of every month, please join us at Sacred Heart for our First Friday Mass, which is devoted to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We will begin with the Rosary at 8:30 am, followed by Mass at 9:00 am, and the Litany and Reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus after.

First Saturday Mass April 6

Join us at the 8:00 am Mass at Presentation on the First Saturday of the month for the Five First Saturdays Devotion. The Five First Saturdays Devotion is one of the principal points on the urgent need for mankind to offer reparation and expiate for the many injuries that the Immaculate Heart of Mary suffers from the hands of both the impious and the indifferent man. The devotion consists of: going to Confession; receiving the Sacrament of Holy Communion; saying five decades of the Rosary; and meditating for 15 minutes on the mysteries of the Rosary.
