Dear Friends,

First, on behalf of my brother priests and our parish staff, please know of our gratitude for all whose generosity allowed us to pray the Paschal Triduum and celebrate Easter so well. Prayerful congratulations also are due to all those who were baptized and received into the Church during the Easter Vigil. Welcome home!

Each of those liturgies, beginning with Tenebrae at Our Risen Savior on Wednesday and culminating in our many Masses of Easter on Sunday, brought together such a wonderful gathering of people to worship the Lord and follow after Him, from the upper room to the empty tomb.

It's that same upper room where we find ourselves today, where the Lord meets us again on this Divine Mercy Sunday and invites us to say with those other disciples, "We have seen the Lord."

May those words not be far from our lips, not only in these great weeks of Easter, but also each day of the week ahead. What a difference that would make in our community and parish if each one of us were to repeat those words often to ourselves when we wake and to others throughout the day.

How was Mass? "I have seen the Lord." What are you going to do? "I have seen the Lord." Why do you believe? "I have seen the Lord." How can you persevere? "I have seen the Lord."

What a powerful statement of faith and loving desire. The Lord desires to see us too. For that reason, we gather together again this Sunday afternoon at Holy Family to celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, with both Eucharistic Adoration and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. What a gift!!

"For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world."

Very truly yours,

Fr. Michael J. Malucha
