Community

Dear brothers and sisters,

Praised be Jesus Christ! I hope you all have had a restful summer. It is hard to believe that school is starting up again already. Though I am grateful to be done with formal studies myself (please God), I am reminded that as disciples of the Lord, we are all called to continue learning at the feet of the Master. We do this by engaging both our hearts and minds through prayer and study.

It is clear to me that to be a Christian in today's world is not easy. As our culture becomes increasingly more and more hostile to Christ and His followers, it is more necessary than ever that we be armed with the Truth, Jesus Christ as revealed in and through His Church. To this end, we are offering several opportunities for you to learn more about your faith and to develop your spiritual life. Please take a look at our many options for ongoing formation classes and sign up for one (or more!) at hffdl.org/sm.

If we wish to make Christ and His love truly known to the world and to our friends and families, then we must know and love Him first.

I hope to see you in one of our classes this Fall. As always, please know of my prayers for you and your families. It is a great joy to be your priest.

God bless,
Fr. Kevin Tanel
