Holy Family is pleased to once again offer its Faith Formation program designed for children with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Students will be exposed to simple lessons, prayers, crafts, and experiences that will help them to develop their faith. The program is open to children and teens who are Catholic or wish to become Catholic but cannot attend Holy Family's Summer Formation or High School Formation Program because the programs do not meet their individual needs. Students and parents who desire to participate more fully in the faith and life of their parish community are invited to participate. The classes will typically meet the first Sunday of the month (October-May) from 9:00 to 9:45 am in Holy Family South Parish Hall, 271 Fourth Street Way. At least one adult must attend with the student. Other family members are welcome to attend. Registration opens Tuesday, July 7 at hffdl.org/cf. Further information is available at hffdl.org/sn.
